Do you ever worry about your appearance before you head off to school in the morning? Maybe sometimes you might wake up and you look in the mirror and worry what your friends might think about you. Maybe you don't like the look of your nose, the colour of your hair or you might not have the latest trends in clothing. But the funny thing is while we are so concerned about changing our appearance; it's what's on the inside that truly matters. We as humans often can't help but see others by their outward appearance, but God looks at the heart, and what God sees is much more important than what our friends at school might say about us. No matter how we look, what we say or even what we do, God knows exactly what we are like and loves us the way we are.

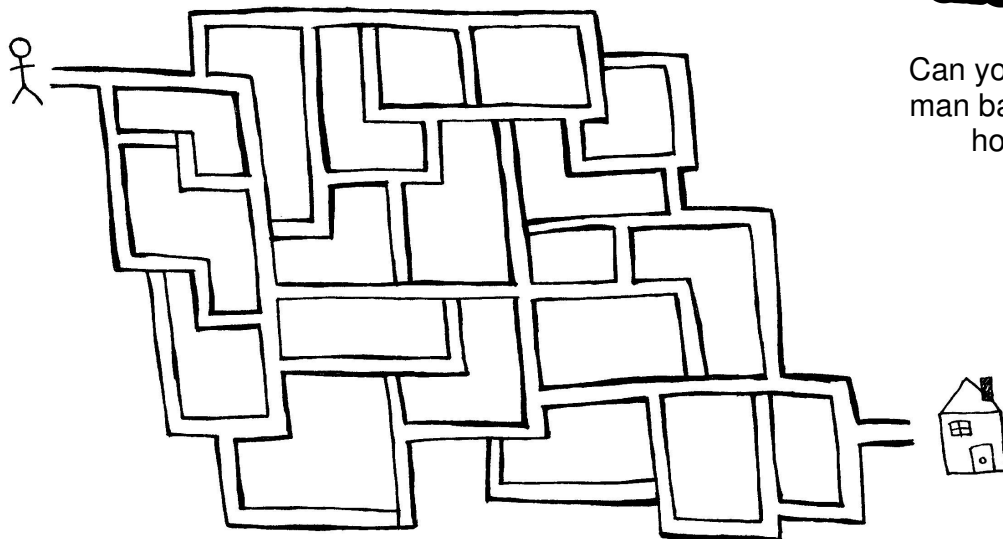

Bible Verse:

“Humans look on the outward appearance,
but God looks at the heart.”

1 Samuel 16:7

In the bible, Jesus spent much of his time talking and sharing meals with those who many people hated, not worrying what his friends may have thought about him. He didn't judge people on their appearance, but instead spent time getting to know them and being their friend. Is there someone in your class or at your school who isn't so popular that you could spend some time with, and find out what they're really like?

A NOTE FROM ROBYN:

Life can get really busy sometimes, don't you think? With school, and sport, and seeing my friends and spending time with my family, I hardly have any time left to talk to God! I think lots of people want to know God, but they don't spend much time learning about him or just talking to him. He loves it when we speak to him, tell him how much we love him and share our life with him.

I enjoy doing all those other things like seeing my friends, but Jesus is more important than all of them! In the Bible Jesus said, 'I am the way, the truth and the life.' If he is that special, then I want to spend as much time getting to know him as I can. This week I've decided to spend 10 minutes each day with God, reading about him in the bible and praying to him. Could you set aside some time to talk to God and make him part of your life?
